

Mark 2:1-12

Mark 2:1-12 tells how Jesus healed a paralyzed man and displayed his authority to forgive sins.

Directions: Locate Mark 2:1-12 in the Bible and read it silently. This encounter with Jesus had a distinct effect on the crowd of people, the paralyzed man, and the scribes. On the first blank, write why all three groups gathered at the house. On the blanks at the bottom, write how each group was affected by the experience.

Satisfaction in Penance

Satisfaction means doing what is possible to repair the harm a sin has caused to another person and to yourself. After we confess our sins to a priest, he gives us a penance to perform. This penance often involves an action to perform or prayers to say.

Directions: Below is a list of sinful actions and attitudes. Describe what you think would be an appropriate penance to repair the harm done.

My Relationship with God

I do not turn to God often during the day, especially when I am tempted.	<hr/> <hr/>
I fail to participate attentively at Mass. I fail to pray often or read the Bible.	<hr/> <hr/>
I use God's name or the names of Jesus, Mary, and the saints disrespectfully.	<hr/> <hr/>

My Relationship with Others

I am a bad example to others through my words or actions. I fail to treat others fairly.	<hr/> <hr/>
I fail to be loving and respectful to my family, teachers, and others.	<hr/> <hr/>
I fail to show respect for my body and for the bodies of others.	<hr/> <hr/>
I took or damaged something that wasn't mine. I cheated, copied homework, or lied.	<hr/> <hr/>
