Genesis 1:24-31

Genesis 1:24-31 tells how God gives us dominion over creation. To "have dominion" over something means to be in charge of it and to take care of it responsibly.

Directions: Locate Genesis 1:24-31 in the Bible and read it silently. Make a word web below for the word "dominion." In the rectangles, write some of the things in God's creation that the passage in Genesis mentions. On the blank lines, write some ways we can exercise our dominion over those things as God wants us to.

God's Creation

The Book of Genesis tells us God looked at his creation and saw how good it was.

Directions: Make a bookmark that shows some of the beauty and the wonders of God's creation. Look at it often as a reminder of God's unlimited love for you.

1. On the blank side of the bookmark, draw images of God's creation. If you have trouble thinking of ideas, reread the beginning of Genesis and use ideas from the days of creation.
2. Cut out the two sides of the bookmark. Cut out a strip of construction paper that is slightly longer and wider than the bookmark pieces.
3. Glue the two sides to the strip of construction paper, one on each side.
