

1 Peter 2:1–10

1 Peter 2:1–10 paints a wonderful picture of how God uses us to build his Church, with Jesus Christ as the cornerstone.

Directions: Locate 1 Peter 2:1–10 in the Bible and read it silently. Inside the large cornerstone, write the words that the passage uses to describe Jesus Christ. Inside the smaller stones, write the words that the passage uses to describe us, the people of God.

Name _____ Date _____

ACTIVITY

SESSION 23

Called to Act Like Jesus

You have learned how Jesus serves as a model for us and how God calls us each to act as Jesus did.

Directions: Imagine that the spaces below are a page from your own personal photo album and that each of the photos on this page are examples of how you act like Jesus. Draw and color four “photos” of yourself acting morally by loving, caring for, and respecting others.

A large rectangular frame representing a photo album page. On the left side, there is a vertical spiral binding. The interior of the frame is divided into four equal-sized rectangular photo slots, arranged in a 2x2 grid. Each photo slot has a black corner tab in the top-left, top-right, bottom-left, and bottom-right corners, indicating where a photo would be placed.

Session 23 Assessment

A. Circle the letter of the choice that best completes each sentence.

- Kateri Tekakwitha was the first Native American to
  - be called religious.
  - meet Isaac Jogues.
  - be canonized.
  - do all of the above.
- Kateri Tekakwitha was born in northeastern North America, the same place where Saint Isaac Jogues
  - was baptized.
  - was martyred.
  - was born.
  - did all of the above.
- When we act morally, we
  - participate in the plan of salvation.
  - become Jesus' witnesses in the world.
  - reflect Jesus.
  - do all of the above.
- Practicing respect for our bodies and the bodies of others is called
  - vice.
  - creation.
  - chastity.
  - sexuality.
- To live moral lives, we should
  - abuse alcohol and drugs.
  - respect our bodies and ourselves.
  - dress immodestly.
  - none of the above.
- We first learn and live the moral life in
  - the domestic church.
  - our circle of friends.
  - school.
  - none of the above.
- Every Christian is like a living stone in the Church, and Jesus is
  - the mortar.
  - the cornerstone.
  - the caretaker.
  - all of the above.
- We act morally at school when we
  - follow the rules.
  - respect our teachers.
  - share with our friends.
  - do all of the above.
- God tells us to make and keep ourselves holy because
  - he needs our help.
  - our enemies are unholy.
  - he is holy.
  - of all of these.
- Saint Paul says that your body is
  - less important than your soul.
  - less sacred than nature.
  - full of sin.
  - a temple of the Holy Spirit.

Name _____ Date _____

SESSION
ASSESSMENT

SESSION 23

Session 23 Assessment

B. What are two ways that you can show you have respect for your body and yourself?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

C. Why is it important that we care for ourselves and others physically as well as spiritually?

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

---