ST. THOMAS THE APOSTLE

Priesthood, Consecrated Life, Sacramental Marriage and Single Life

Vocation — A vocation is God’s invitation to love and serve him and his Church in a particular way of life. It is a call to live on earth in a way that will impact eternity. The word itself is derived from the Latin word vocare which means ‘to be called.’

Priest — A man is ordained to the priesthood through the Sacrament of Holy Orders. Diocesan priests are called to serve the people of a particular diocese like Fr. Jay, Fr. John and Fr. Joseph serve the people of the Diocese of Metuchen. Men called to be priests in religious orders belong to communities like the Franciscans and the Benedictines. Counsels.

Religious Life — Priests, brothers, monks, sisters, and nuns who separate themselves from the world to some degree according to their religious institute’s mission and purpose to witness the coming of the Kingdom of God. This radical witness is made through the public profession of the vows of poverty, chastity and obedience and is a permanent commitment made in a specific religious institute recognized by the Church.

Sacramental Marriage — A covenant between baptized man and a woman and establishes a partnership of the whole life, which is ordered toward the good of the spouses and procreation and education of offspring.

Single Life--- A divine call to holiness that some people choose to live out for their entire lives. It’s a state of life that’s just as significant as marriage or priesthood or religious life. Those called to the Single Life live a chaste life. Single people can serve the Church in a variety of ways, such as proclaiming the Gospel, helping care for other families, studying and praying, and mentoring and teaching.

“The Eucharist, as Christ’s saving presence in the community of the faithful and its spiritual food, is the most precious possession which the Church can have in her journey through history.”
Saint Pope John Paul II

We all need a time and place where we can go and quietly reflect. We all have personal challenges that make us tired and weary. We all search for hope and peace in such a busy and noisy life. As Christians we believe real Hope is found in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Come and allow his presence to heal and nourish you.

We invite you to four Holy Hour’s this year focused specifically on the Real Presence of Christ. This will be a time for you to hear readings relevant to our lives, music that will help you to reflect, and a message of Hope. We will gather afterwards for refreshments and small table discussions. OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

September 15, 2024 - 24th Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's gospel, Jesus himself asks: who do you say I am? Just before that, the disciples told Jesus what other people say. And as if with the force of an electric shock, Peter makes his declaration. Simply: You are the Christ. That is: you're not just one more in the line of prophets. In fact you're the central reference point for all human history. Is there someone in your life who would like to know more about Jesus Christ? Invite your relative or friend to call Lisa Giuliano at the parish office, 732-251-4000 ext. 8218 for information on OCIA. Our Inquiry sessions began last week. Inquiry Sessions are opened to anyone who is unbaptized, baptized into another Christian Denomination or baptized Catholic but has not received BOTH sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.
