Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is the act of worshiping God as He is present in the consecrated Eucharist. Since the Last Supper, when Jesus broke the bread and distributed the wine saying, "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood," Catholics have believed that the bread and wine are no longer merely baked wheat and fermented grape juice, but the actual living presence of the Second Person of the Trinity—Jesus Christ. Spending time before the Blessed Sacrament, in prayer and devotion, is exactly the same as spending time before the Living God. Adoration occurs whenever someone kneels in front of a tabernacle that contains the Blessed Sacrament, genuflects toward a tabernacle, bows before receiving the Blessed Sacrament at Mass, or, in a more focused way, when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration. Join us on October 3rd for Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament from 11:00am - 12:00pm. Please come and embrace Jesus in which you say to Him: "I am yours, and I ask you, please stay with me always."

-Pope Benedict XVI

PREP

Confirmation Students:

Beginning this week you must sign the Mass Attendance book located by the television on the right-hand side of the Church. DO NOT sign during the Mass. Once Mass begins you must wait until the priest has processed out of the Church to sign the book.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)

September 28, 2025 - Twenty-sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

The life of St. Teresa of Calcutta stands for us as a shining example of the Gospel in action. The rich man in today's Gospel reading was the opposite of St. Teresa of Calcutta. His life and death and subsequent belated remorse serve as a warning for us of the danger of living a life overly devoted to luxury and pleasure. While Lazarus was poor, infirm, and hungry during his life, the rich man dressed and dined extravagantly and enjoyed many earthly pleasures during his life. After death, the rich man cried out for relief from his torments while Lazarus enjoyed eternal bliss in Heaven. An essential lesson for us to take from this story is to learn to detach from material things and worldly experiences and to seek out the things of Heaven instead. We are called to be empty vessels so that Jesus can fill us with His love and heavenly blessings, which are worth so much more than the things of earth. When our arms are filled with material goods, they are already too full to receive the spiritual treasures that God wants to give us. Do you know someone who would like to learn more about Jesus, and how we can follow him through the Catholic Faith? All who are unbaptized, baptized into another faith denomination, or baptized Catholic but have not received Eucharist and Confirmation, are invited. For more information we invite you to call Lisa at 732-251-4000 ext. 8218.

"The Eucharist, as Christ's saving presence in the community of the faithful and its spiritual food, is the most precious possession which the Church can have in her journey through history."

Saint Pope John Paul II

We all need a time and place where we can go and quietly reflect. We all have personal challenges that make us tired and weary. We all search for hope and peace in such a busy and noisy life. As Christians we believe real Hope is found in the Real Presence of Christ in the Eucharist. Come and allow his presence to heal and nourish you.

We invite you to four Holy Hour's this year focused specifically on the Real Presence of Christ. This will be a time for you to hear readings relevant to our lives, music that will help you to reflect, and a message of Hope. You can find more information on our website: <https://saintthomasob.com/>

The Catholic Parent

Parents are invited to a new group which will meet 2 Fridays a month at 6:30 p.m. on Zoom beginning on September 26th. Meetings will include watching a brief video on a topic particular to Catholic parenting and discussing as a group. Topics will include desiring holiness for your child, child temperaments, family culture, strong marriage, and being an effective witness, among others. The group is intended for those with children in the home and new parents are particularly welcome as developmental stages will be discussed! If interested, please contact Cristina at cdaverso@diometuchen.org

TO THE PARENTS OF YOUNG CHILDREN, MAY WE SUGGEST...

+Relax! God put the wiggle in children; do not feel you have to suppress it in God's house. ALL ARE WELCOME!

+Sit toward the front where it is easier for your little one to see and hear what is going on at the altar. They tire of seeing the backs of other's heads.

+Quietly explain the parts of Mass and actions of the priest, altar servers, etc. Sing the hymns, pray, and voice the responses. Children learn liturgical behavior by copying you.

+If you have to leave Mass with your child, feel free to do so, but please come back. As Jesus said, "Let the children come to me."

+Remember that the way we welcome children in the church directly affects the way they respond to the Church, to God and to one another. Let them know that they are at home in this house of worship.
