Eucharistic Adoration

Eucharistic Adoration is the act of worshiping God as He is present in the consecrated Eucharist. Since the Last Supper, when Jesus broke the bread and distributed the wine saying, "This is my Body" and "This is my Blood," Catholics have believed that the bread and wine are no longer merely baked wheat and fermented grape juice, but the actual living presence of the Second Person of the Trinity—Jesus Christ. Adoration occurs whenever someone kneels in front of a tabernacle that contains the Blessed Sacrament, genuflects toward a tabernacle, bows before receiving the Blessed Sacrament at Mass, or, in a more focused way, when the Blessed Sacrament is exposed for Adoration. Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament December 4th.

OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults)
November 8, 2026 - Thirty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Ten ladies were given the same task, but only half were fully committed. Five wise ones brought flasks of oil along with their lamps and were all set to light the way for the bridegroom. The frivolous five had lamps, but didn't bother to bring any fuel. The ten ladies napped as they waited, with the wise ones sleeping peacefully, content with their day's work. They were free in conscience, confident in their purpose and mission, and eager to light the path for the bridegroom and those who wanted to see him. When the bridegroom finally came, they were ready to serve. The others? Scrambling in the dark, they begged the wise to give them some of their goods. "Go . . . and buy some for yourselves," they replied point-blank. The foolish came to the party too late. Some of the not-so-wise folks of today think that the sacrament of Baptism is the only thing they need to enter the heavenly courts. Yes, it's the door opener, but unless one lives out the Baptismal promises, we'll be left in the dark. Living a wholesome, life is the fuel required for igniting the light of Christ in ourselves and others. Be ready for Christ's coming. Stay energized with the Mass and sacraments, prayer and fasting, studying Sacred Scripture, living the beatitudes, and other devotions. We are entrusted with a deposit of faith and expected to perform a duty, to bring the light of Christ into this dark world. Our lamp will burn out and be useless on the day of His coming unless we remain filled with grace. Please pray for our Inquirers as they begin their faith journey and discern whether God is calling them into full communion with the Catholic Church.

ST. MICHAEL the ARCHANGEL PRAYER

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wiles and wickedness of the devil. Restrain him O God, we humbly pray, and do thou O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin and destruction of souls. Amen.

November 8, 2026 -32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

"Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour." - MATTHEW 25:13

Many of us have put off doing something because we think we are too busy. We've all said, "I'll do it later when I have time." Unfortunately, too many of us apply this attitude to our Faith. Jesus' call is urgent, in the here and now, in your current circumstances. How is God calling you to use your gifts today? Don't delay. None of us is guaranteed tomorrow

BLANKET MINISTRY

Reminder: Our next Blanket Ministry meeting will be on Tuesday, November 17th, at 11:00 a.m. in the large conference room of the Pastoral Center.

Hope to see you there.
Regards, Pat Moran and Kathy Catchpole
